Cherrill thinks the next march in DC is on Sat 19th January 2019
Judy Adams agrees re the date - around MLK birthday

bln: I would encourage us to take these ideas for Solidarity events and the discussion from tonight and make the information available on the branches listserv and program listserv to pique others curiosity about them and also to see who might have other “angles” about some of them. I like Sandy’s idea, mentioned just now, about tying into national (i.e., kindred organization) actions - so that we can build on the coalitions we began to form this year. I am thinking of the Hiroshima Day events that happened locally in Livermore (California) with the climate change people that resulted in the 9/8 actions.

Marybeth, I keep putting my hand up but you aren’t seeing it so I wrote this down. Thanks.
bln

MARYBETH, I pressed #2 and you did not call on me or recognize that I had pressed 2. I would very much like to be on this small group - perhaps you are not seeing me on your dashboard? Barbara Nielsen (And I see from Cherill that she is having similar issues, maybe.

To get called on, press 1.--Laura

Hi, Laura, and I did press 1. Bln.

Barb: you said you pressed 2.--Laura

Laura, I had been pressing 1, then when MBG asked for committee volunteers, I pressed 2 and was not recognized either time. Sorry. bln Cherill not on phone - pressing 2 via this pad- willing to help look at suggestions. Could not get in via phone - my ID number not recognized by Maestro.
