

UN PRACTICUM IN ADVOCACY

The Practicum was a force of power... and an incredible influence in my envisioning where and how my future activism would fit into this global picture.”

-Former Practicum Participant

The Commission on the Status of Women is the principle policy-making body dedicated exclusively to gender equality & advancement of women.

The priority theme for 2016 is “Women’s empowerment and its link to sustainable development.” The session will focus on the elimination and prevention of all forms of violence against women and girls.

Questions? Contact us at practicum-mail@wilpfus.org

Nondiscrimination statement: The selection process for the UN Programs of WILPF U.S. requires that you be currently enrolled in a Bachelor’s Master’s, or Doctoral program. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, citizen status, ancestry, age, religion or spiritual creed, disability or handicap, sex or gender, pregnancy, gender identity and/or expression, sexual orientation, military or veteran status, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal, state or local law. Retaliation is also prohibited.

When: March 12-19, 2016

Where: UN Headquarters,
New York, New York

What: As a representative of the Women’s International League for Peace and Freedom, you will strengthen your advocacy skills, create and sustain valuable professional relationships and deepen your understanding of international women’s issues by attending the 60th Commission on the Status of Women.

Price: $1400
(partial scholarships available)

Deadline for Submission:
December 11, 2015

Application Available at:
<http://www.wilpfus.org>

Sponsored by: WILPF US