Independent Auditors' Report

To the Officers, Directors and Sponsors
WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOR
PEACE AND FREEDOM – U.S. SECTION
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND FREEDOM – U.S. SECTION as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Board of Directors. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND FREEDOM – U.S. SECTION as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note A –

Organization and Basis of Presentation

Organization

THE WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND FREEDOM (WILPF) was organized in 1915 as a not-for-profit organization and incorporated under New York law and is generally exempt from income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(4). The purpose of WILPF is to promote international peace through public education and legislation.

WILPF is the U.S. section of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, with international headquarters located in Geneva, Switzerland.

Basis of Presentation

WILPF uses the accrual basis of accounting, recognizing revenue when it is earned and expenses in the period incurred without regard to the time of receipt or payment of cash. WILPF's accounting and reporting policies are in substantial compliance with the provisions of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Audit and Accounting Guide Not-For-Profit Organizations, prepared by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Not-For-Profit Organizations Committee.

WILPF complies with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117 Financial Statements for Not-for-Profit Organizations, issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) for presentation of its financial statements. As such, the financial statements are presented on the basis of unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted net assets.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note B –

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

This summary of significant accounting policies of WILPF is presented to assist in understanding WILPF's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of WILPF's management, who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles, with any exceptions noted, and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For financial statement purposes, WILPF considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less deposited in commercial banks or with mutual fund managers to be cash equivalents. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insures all of these accounts in aggregate to $100,000. Funds in excess of $100,000 are uninsured and at risk if the bank becomes insolvent. There were no funds in excess of $100,000 for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005.

Investments

WILPF complies with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 124, Accounting for Certain Investments Held by Not-For-Profit Organizations, issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) for accounting reporting for investment in equity securities and all investments in debt securities. These investments are to be reported under one category at their fair market values in the Statement of Financial Position with any unrealized gains and losses reported in the Statement of Activities.

Notes to Financial Statements

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are capitalized at cost. Depreciation on property and equipment is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the assets. Expenditures for major renewals and betterments that extend the useful life of property and equipment are capitalized. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

Revenue Recognition

WILPF complies with SFAS No. 116, Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. As such, contributions are recognized as revenue when they are received or unconditionally pledged.

WILPF reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Notes to Financial Statements

WILPF reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as restricted support.

WILPF is generally supported by dues, contributions, and program service revenue. Contributions are received by WILPF for its general support or for a specific project. General membership dues are amortized to revenues over the applicable membership period.

Donated Materials and Services

SFAS No. 116, Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made, requires that donated services be recognized as contributions if the services enhance non-financial assets, would typically need to be purchased and requires specialized skills which are provided by people who possess those skills. Materials should be recognized as contributions if the values can be reasonably estimated.

WILPF received contributed legal services valued at $1,463 during the year ended December 31, 2005.

WILPF has not received donated materials, which meet the criteria for recognition for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005.

Notes to Financial Statements

Classes of Net Assets

The financial statements report amounts separately by class of net assets.

- a) Unrestricted amounts are those currently available at the discretion of the board for use in WILPF's operations and those resources invested in equipment.
- b) Temporarily or permanently restricted amounts are those, which are stipulated by donors for specific operating purposes or for the acquisition of equipment on a temporary or permanent basis.

At December 31, 2006 and 2005, WILPF had temporarily restricted net assets of $6,578 and $13,231, respectively.

Income Tax Status

WILPF is a not-for-profit organization and is generally exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(4) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal or state income taxes.

Reclassifications

Certain accounts for the year ended December 31, 2005 have been reclassified for consistency with the December 31, 2006 presentation.

Note D –
Related Party Transactions

WILPF provides assessment contributions to the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom international headquarters. Contributions were $25,740 and $29,325 for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

WILPF receives support from the affiliated not-for-profit organization, Jane Adams Peace Association, Inc. (J.A.P.A.). J.A.P.A. was established as an IRC Sec 501 (c)(3) educational fund to support WILPF's mission. Contributions are received by J.A.P.A. from individuals and foundations that have designated WILPF as the intended recipient. WILPF reimburses J.A.P.A. for administrative expenses based on a percentage of the contributions received. Contributions received from J.A.P.A. during the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 were $224,283 and $147,438, respectively.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note E --

Lease Commitments

WILPF has month-to-month lease commitments for office space. Monthly charges are $1,000 for the Philadelphia office and $667 for the Washington, DC office. The lease for the Washington, DC office terminated in April 2005. Total rent expense was $12,000 and $12,003 for the years ending December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. In addition, WILPF pays the utilities for the Philadelphia office. The following is a summary of future lease payments for office equipment:

2007	$ 7,788
2008	7,788
2009	7,788
2010	747
Total	$ 24,111

Note F --

Employee Benefit Plan

WILPF has a SIMPLE IRA retirement plan, which covers substantially all of its employees and has a deferred income component. Under the plan WILPF contributes 3% of each eligible employee's salary. WILPF contributions were $3,728 and $4,727 for 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note G –

Accrued Compensated
Absences

WILPF has not recorded an accrual for compensated absences since the amount cannot be reasonably estimated.

Note H –

Business Risks and Uncertainties

Included in WILPF's investments is a government backed mortgage investment and a mutual fund. Significant changes in prevailing interest rates and economic conditions may adversely affect the timing and amount of cash flows on such investments, as well as their related values. In addition, the value of these investments is often derived from an appraisal, an estimate opinion of value. A significant decline in the market value of these investments could have an adverse effect on WILPF's financial position.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note I-

Temporarily restricted net assets at December 31, 2006 and 2005 were available to be used in the subsequent years for the following purposes.

Temporarily Restricted
Net Assets

	2006	2005
Technology	$ 2,328	$ 0

	$ 6,578	$ 13,231

See independent Auditors' report

Notes to Financial Statements

Note J-

Concentration of Substantial Contributor
Contributions

WILPF receives substantial support from J.A.P.A. (refer to Note D). A material decline in the amount of support received from J.A.P.A. would adversely affect WILPF's ability to continue its program.

Note K -

Contingent Liability

The City of Philadelphia is attempting to collect city wage taxes on payments made to certain independent contractors for the years 2000 through 2002. Assessments include $6,867 in taxes and $5,832 in interest and penalties. The Organization has appealed the claim before the Philadelphia Tax Review Board. If the Organization does not prevail in the appeal, WILPF would be subject to payments of city wage taxes on certain independent contractors for years subsequent to 2002.
