

The Poor People's Campaign: Themes and Important Dates

The four interconnected foci of the campaign—Systemic Racism, Poverty, the War Economy, and Ecological Devastation—will be highlighted during the 40 days of nonviolent moral fusion direct action beginning May 13, Mother's Day, continuing through the Summer Solstice. Themes for each week are as follows:

WEEK 1: (Mothers Day) Child Poverty and Mothers in Poverty

WEEK 2: Systemic Racism / Voter Suppression / Immigration

WEEK 3: (Memorial Day) Veterans / Militarism

WEEK 4: Healthcare / Ecological Devastation

WEEK 5: Wages / Jobs / Poverty

WEEK 6: False Moral Narrative of Christian Nationalism; daily actions on different themes in DC

Here are key dates of nationally coordinated actions/events in each of the participating states:

April 10 – Release of the full audit report and the demands of the campaign (will be livestreamed from DC)

April 14 – Get trained in your state for nonviolent moral fusion direct action

May 13/14 – Campaign launches in each participating state and DC.

May 13-June 21 – 40 days of moral action with nonviolent moral fusion direct actions on Mondays in 30+ state capitals and Washington, DC. If you are able to, please consider joining the campaign in Washington, DC, for at least one of the six Mondays during the 40 days!

June 23 – Join the PPC in Washington, DC, for a mass rally and a “sending forth” to continue building the moral movement in the state where you live!
