QUESTION: THE COMELEC FIRST DIVISION JUST DISMISSED THE BONGBONG MARCOS DISQUALIFICATION CASES, WHICH SEEMED THE BEST CHANCE TO DISQUALIFY HIM BASED ON HIS PRIOR CONVICION FOR FAILURE TO PAY TAXES DURING THE 1980S. BASED ON THIS NEWS, DO YOU SEE ANY HOPE FOR GOVERNMENTAL INSTITUTIONS PLAYING A VIABLE ROLE IN STABILIZING THE FRAGILE PHILIPPINE DEMOCRACY?

From Jan Strout to Everyone 06:32 PM

Jan Strout, Bozeman, Montana, member, WILPF Cuba and Bolivarian Alliance Issues Committee. Thank you for organizing this important and illuminating presentation and discussion about this Philippine example and all of the growing authoritarian threats and actions which always have disparate impacts on women, those who are poor and most marginalized.

ARTS IN ACTIVISM -- LATE ADDED SPEAKER on THURSDAY'S 1WILPF Call
Ashley Carrington, WILPF Triangle Branch, a gifted artist and experienced art curator and arts commission director in North Carolina is presenting an exciting proposal to initiate a brand new project within WILPF, the WCAC: WILPF-US Cultural Arts Ad Hoc Committee.

Ashley is proposing that WILPF members who are artists and activists... and other artists who engage in activism... might collaborate to "bridge the gap between activism and the transformative power of the Arts." She will be seeking out artists among your branch members who want to participate. The purpose of WCAC is to "enhance, empower, embolden and enliven the WILPF US Community by aiding in the promotion of the Arts".

From Anne Henny to Everyone 06:55 PM
So inspiring, Ashley!

From Mary to Everyone 06:55 PM
This is wonderful! Thank you, Ashley Carrington!!

From Sandy Thacker to Everyone 06:56 PM
I'm blown away by your energy and passion, Ashley!

From Elenita Muñiz to Everyone 06:57 PM
I love this as a way to formalize the work so many branches may have done in the past through the arts!
Remember the Joan Patchen Fund is available for exactly these kinds of projects...

From Theresa El-Amin to Everyone 06:57 PM

Hope that the WILPF steering committee will discuss it and that the WILPF-US national board will approve it and give it a budget.

From bln (SF branch) to Everyone 06:58 PM
